CLEANING FLOOR-COVERINGS.

HOW TO KEEP CARPETS FROM WEARING OUT.

[From The Philadelphia Times.]

If the carpet is to be taken up and beaten, the job had better be entrusted to some man who makes it his business. If this cannot be done, lay it on the grass or hang it on a clothes-line and beat it on the wrong side with canes—taking care that the canes have no sharp points. Then spread the carpet out and sweep well on the right side. There is more art in sweeping a carpet than a novice is apt to suppose. An old broom should never be used, and a new one should be kept especially for the carpets. With Brussels and velvet carpets there are two ways to the pile—just as in velvet—and they should always be swept with the pile. If a carpet is swept against the grain, it always looks rough and scratched up.

After being swept and laid down on the floor the carpet should be wiped. Have two pails, one of clean soap-suds, the other with luke-warm water; a clean flannel cloth and two coarse clean towels. Take the carpet by breadths, wring the flannel out of the lukewarm water and fold it so that you can turn and use it up and down three or four times on the same place. Rub both with and against the grain as hard as if you were scrubbing a floor, then throw the flannel into your soap-suds and rub the carpet dry with one of your dry towels. If you leave the carpet wet the dust will stick to it, and it will smell sour and musty. Wash your flannel clean in the soap-suds, wring it out of the warm water, and proceed as before.

If the carpet is very dirty, or has much green in it, use fresh ox-gall in the luke-warm water in the proportion of a quart of gall to three quarts of water, rinse the lather off with cold water and rub the carpet dry as already directed. This rubbing a carpet raises the pile and freshens the colors.

Choose for long wear a Brussels carpet where the pattern is small, as the carrying of the threads woven through the different colors to the back of the carpet strengthens the material and makes it wear better.

Ingrain carpets need to be shaken oftener than Brussels, as from their more open texture the dust percolates through them. It is rarely necessary to take up a Brussels carpet more than every two or three years, and not so often, even, where the room is not in constant use. Sweeping on the floor answers every purpose for removing the dust.

It is a mistaken idea to cover a carpet with drugget in the belief that it saves it. What wears out carpets is the grinding on the floor, and the protection should come from beneath. Moth-proof carpet lining is best, but several thicknesses of newspapers come next as a carpet preservative. The printer's ink is an excellent moth preventive, and the newspapers keep the carpet from rubbing on the boards.

On stairs use stair-pads and have half a yard more carpeting than you need. In order that you may be able to turn the carpet upside down and change the positions of the places where the edge of the stair makes a part. When your carpet is new it possesses a certain amount of down on it, which after it begins to show will all work out in the first and pleasant; besides it helps to keep away moths. These little pests must be looked for in out of the way corners. Loosen the edge of the carpet and give them a plentiful sprinkling of insect-powder. If you find a moth nest kill all you can and then press the spot with a hot iron; this will destroy the eggs.

Oil-cloth should be well scrubbed with a brush. Many people are afraid to use a brush to it, thinking that it scrubs off the paint; but as there is always an uneven surface on oil-cloth, nothing but a brush gets out the dirt. The chief thing to remember is to dry it hard by bit, and not to leave a large portion of it wet, because it stands to reason that as the oil-cloth is made of cloth, or canvas or old carpets as a foundation and the pattern painted on it, it will blister if left wet. Use hot water and yellow soap—no soda. Have half a yard of clean flannel to wash off the soap after it has been scrubbed.

Scrub about a yard at a time, and then wash it off, and dry thoroughly with a clean coarse cloth. Change the water three times in cleaning a long hall. It takes two dry cloths to rub it dry. After the whole surface is cleaned, polish with beeswax and turpentine, with a piece of flannel to rub it on with, and another clean piece to rub after. Or a little linseed oil is a good thing instead of the beeswax and turpentine. Never cover a boarded floor entirely with oil-cloth, because it rots the boards and causes dry rot. Never use it in a nursery; it is the coldest thing and most unwholesome for children to sit on—worse than stone could be.

STATE NEWS.

Androscoggin.

Mr. George Farr of East Poland, exhibits ripe raspberries picked last week.

The game of base ball, Saturday afternoon, between the Bates nine and a picked nine from the Latin School, resulted in a score of 14 to 10 in favor of the Bates nine.

Charlie Penney, of Lewiston, who fell from a tree, while beech-nutting, Saturday, has suffered intensely since the accident. His condition seemed to have improved. Monday morning, but he is not thought to be out of danger.

The Journal says: Tramps have struck Lewiston in a shower. A party of ten were seen in a circle around a jug on the bank of Jepson Brook, Sunday. Sunday morning, a woman found two asleep in her hog-pen. She screamed, the tramps awoke and scrambled out. They were probably two of the railroad gang. Monday forenoon, an overcoat and a pair of rubber boots were stolen from the entry of Mr. H. L. Hall. Just before noon, the coat was found hidden near by, under a pile of rubbish. The theft was probably committed by tramps.

Aroostook.

Two thousand bushels of potatoes per day are being hauled to the Houlton starch factory.

Mrs. McKenna, of White Settlement, an aged lady, fell down stairs last Friday, and dislocated her shoulder.

Twenty car-loads of potatoes—equal to 7000 bushels—were purchased in Houlton last week for shipment.

The register of the Exchange Hotel in Houlton shows 1435 arrivals during the months of August and September last past.

A daughter of John Hand of Hodgdon was accidentally shot in the thigh last Friday, by the discharge of a revolver in the hand of her little brother—another sad result of the careless use of deadly weapons in the hands of children.

The Aroostook Pioneer says: The potato crop in this county is immense, and, so far as we can learn, very little affected with rot. The starch factories are unable to use the potatoes as fast as brought in.

The Sunrise says that the starch factory at Sprague's Mills, Easton, is running day and night, and yet finds it simply impossible to dispose of the potatoes much more than half as fast as they are hauled in.

Cumberland.

Last Saturday afternoon the two and a half story brick residence owned and occupied by Mr. Frank Sawyer and family, on Windham road, about a mile and a half from the Westbrook boundary, was discovered in flames which took in some unaccountable way from the barn. The house, ell and barn were all destroyed, and only a small part of the furniture saved. There was an insurance of $800 on the house.

Last Saturday night three sons of Mr. Jordan who resides on the Ocean House road, Cape Elizabeth, started for Portland with a horse and wagon intending to visit the performance of Humpty Dumpty at Music Hall. They proceeded without difficulty until they reached the pokey bit of woods near Knightville when they were surprised to see three or four men rush from the bushes. One of the men seized the horse by the bridle and the other began to fire large stones at the Jordans. By chance one of the boys had a pistol in his pocket which was loaded and he fired at the man who had hold of the bridle, at the same time his companions whipped up the horse. At the evidently unexpected firing of the pistol the rascals ran and the young men were glad to get off so easily.

The Portland Argus says: Twenty years ago last Monday night Machigonne steamer went into commission—the first steam fire engine in the department. During that time there have been about eight hundred fires and alarms, an average of forty per year. Samuel Thurston is the only original member of the company now belonging, and in the twenty years he has missed only forty-five fires and alarms, mostly on account of sickness and disability. Edward Porter has been engineer during all the time. He is now on the sick list. Sam has reason to be proud of his record, and last night he took the company out for an oyster supper.

Hancock.

The blacksmith's shop upon the Douglass Mine, at Bluehill, with all the tools and a hundred dollars worth of carpenter's tools, was burned Saturday forenoon. A bag of giant powder and caps was in the shop, and in welding, sparks flew to the bag, setting the powder on fire; the workmen at once left for fear of the explosion of the caps, and in a short time the building was in ashes. Many of the workmen lost by the fire. The damage to the company must be considerable. Perhaps this will teach workmen the desirability of keeping powder and fire in separate buildings.

Kennebec.

The Journal says that a fine colt belonging to Col. De Witt of Augusta, out to pasture a little below South Gardiner, was killed there by the midnight train of last Thursday. The horse was valued at $600, and was of Crown Prince blood.

The Gardiner Fire Department will get rusty. It hasn't been out for forty-eight weeks.

Oxford.

Capt. Simeon Harnden and Abner Harnden of Denmark, each about 80 years old, together plowed an acre and a half in about eleven hours, recently.

Saturday, Mr. Joseph A. Pruse of Portsmouth, N. H., committed suicide at Oxford by hanging. He had been for a long time suffering from depression of spirits. He was on a visit to his brother, Mr. Pruse was for many years engaged in the dry goods business in Portsmouth, and later he has been connected with the Mechanics' and Traders' Bank. He was a man of sterling qualities and beloved by a large circle of friends. He leaves a wife and family.

Death has been doing a fearful work in the town of Lovell, especially among the aged. Among the sixteen funerals attended by the pastor, Rev. T. Goodrich, within the last nine months, the average age of six is 87 years. Four of these were died with the last two months.

The Woolwich Indians have all the orders they can fill. The manner in which they build bark canoes is interesting. Marking first the shape of the canoe in the earth they form the sides by driving stakes, the earth forms the inside, and after the bark is fastened the canoe is completed.

Peter Golden, of Bath, one of the crew of the schooner Oregon, with three others, have confessed to stealing the rope from Frank A. Palmer's rigging loft, as well as stock from the Popham loft.

The carpenters at the yard of B. W. & H. F. Morse made thirteen frames Saturday. Mr. Geo. Hawley is master workman. This is said to be the most frames ever made in Bath in one day.

OHIO AND THE SOUTHERN ISSUE.

[From the N Y Tribune.]

It seems that the good people of Ohio are not unaware of the grave responsibility which rests upon them. The magnificant welcome everywhere given in Ohio to Senator Blaine must be taken, not only on an evidence of personal liking for the man, but as proof of hearty and general sympathy with the idea which he has so effectually presented upon public attention. Mr Blaine holds that the first duty of every patriotic citizen is to take care that the disloyal element of the South does not get control of the Federal Government. For that belief he gives strong reasons—the lurking and malignant spirit of disloyalty which still shows itself in local laws, the conduct of the South with respect to the public debt and every other form of indebtedness, the passionate interest shown throughout the South in war claims and jobs to empty the Treasury, and the desperate and revolutionary behavior of Southern men, and of the party which they control, at the extra session of Congress. It used to be said of Mr Seward, by extreme Southern men, that he was all the more potent in arousing a mighty opposition to Southern influence in National affairs because he was always free from personal rancor, and spoke from convictions of public duty which personal prejudices and passions had no share in shaping. Mr. Blaine is one of the same temper. He hates Southern disloyalty, Southern lawlessness Southern repudiation, but has not the least tinge of personal vindictiveness toward the people or the political leaders of the South as individuals Precisely there he best represents Northern temper. There is no vindictiveness at the North, and no desire to defeat or humiliate the Southern people for anything they have done in the past. But there is a deep-rooted and abiding conviction that all that is best in free institutions would be thrown away, and that the honor and the very existence of the Union would be imperilled, if the men who still show the spirit of disloyalty should succeed in gaining control of the Government. His wonderfully hearty welcome shows that in this Mr. Blaine is in accord with the loyal men of Ohio.

LAMAR'S SPEECH.

[From the Providence Journal.]

Senator Lamar has made to his constituents that long contemplated speech, which in the South, as in Great Britian, is the report to his constituents of the doings in the legislature to which he belongs, and the occasion also of putting himself in accord with the voters respecting any matter of popular interest, or of declaring why he differs from his party Senator Lamar made a very lengthy speech, a synopsis of it occupies columns of the Southern papers, but he failed to say anything in regard to the shooting of Dixon by Barksdale Inasmuch as the matter was charged upon the Democracy of Mississippi as a deliberate political murder in accordance with the doctrines and practices of Mississippi Democrats it can hardly be said that it was too insignificent a subject for consideration. Indeed it has been said that Senator Lamar thought it so important that he would not speak of it until he had found out all about it, and then first to his friends and constituents. The silence of Senator Lamar may be interpreted as saying that, on the whole he does not believe that political assassination, if the shooter is a Democrat and the shootee a Republican is worth talking about, or it may be construed as declaring while he would be willing to justify it in Mississippi, he would, by so doing, give occasion for a mild regret on the part of some Northern Democrats; that he would not condemn the traditional habits of his party, and that, on the whole, to say nothing would be safer than any utterance he felt inclined to make, that it would be more expedient to say in private what he thought than to risk the criticisms of the weaker Democrats of the North, to say nothing of those whose political enthusiasm does not lead them to endorse the shot-gun.

DAVIS'S JOB.

It is reported that Senator Davis, of West Virginia, will introduce into the next Congress "a bill cancelling the loan made by the United States to the several States in 1837," which amounted to the snug sum of $28 101 641 91. Of this amount, nearly one-half was distributed to the Southern States—and perhaps the fact that they have only about one-quarter of the population of the country and one eighth of the wealth accounts for their willingness to "cancel the debt." The reason which Senator Davis is represented as urging for this extraordinary cancellation is that keeping account of the debt is "a useless embarrassment to the Treasury Department." The trifling circumstance that Illinois, which has property amounting to $2,121,680,679, got only $477,919 of the money, while Virginia, which has only $409,588,133 worth of property, got $2,198,427 of the money—that is, that Virginia got about twenty-five times as much as Illinois in proportion to wealth—may possibly interfere with this philanthropic scheme of Senator Davis.

CIPHERING SAMUEL.

The N. Y. Herald's correspondent recently interviewed Col. A. K. McClure, of the Philadelphia Times, who was a strong supporter of Tilden in 1876. He now thinks Tilden a tough customer, and speaks of the cipher business as follows:

"And then in regard to the cipher despatches, he did just enough to tarnish himself and not sufficient to gain his end. The whole question had resolved itself to a matter of barter. Tilden's friends were in it, as well as the others, and they failed in their purpose, even with the the weapons for success in their hands. Why should they go to Florida to dicker—and fail? The Oregon attempt was the most awkward and stupid blunder on record. It involved all the moral turpitude possible in any transaction—and failed. The election of Samuel J. Tilden would be the greatest possible calamity to the party and the country."

The latest communist outbreak is announced in Panama. The communist performance consisted in the seizure of the town of Ocana, in New Grenada, which, after being plundered, was given over to a reign of terror for four days. After having fired the place the communists retired a short distance, carrying their booty and entrenched themselves. The President of the state, with a small force, attacked and repulsed them, killing several and capturing a number. The affair appears to have been that of banditti rather than political.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

The Buffalo Commercial believes that among Republicans Mr. Curtis is alone in his opposition to Mr. Cornell.

For Zach Chandler we have no particular admiration or affection, but candor compels the admission that as Secretary of the Interior he was a good deal more of a business man than Mr. Schurz, and a good deal less of a Pharasee.—N. Y. World.

The N. Y. Herald says The Mobile Register has become a humorous paper. In a late issue it says "The whirligig of time makes strange changes in politics as well as everything else, and therefore it is to day that we see the Southern Democrats the firmest supporters of the Union that they once sought to destroy."

Senator Lamar has made his promised speech, but he forgot to say anything about the Yazoo affair. And "silence gives assent."

The general political tendencies in New York favor the Republicans and will increase the Republican vote, and the Democratic schism is certain to divert voters enough from Robinson to insure the election of the Republican candidate —New York Herald.

E. V. Smalley, writes from Columbus to the Tribune I met at the railway station this morning "Corporal" Davis, the next Governor of Maine, who comes into the State to take the stump by special request of Mr. Foster. The Ohio Republicans will be glad to see among them the men who have just carried the party standard to victory in the far-East Maine—repaying generally but debt to Ohio on account of the late canvass Ohio sent to her Sherman, Garfield, McKinley, Butterworth Updegraff and Grosvenor and she sends in return Blaine, Frye, Hale, Reed and Davis

THE CORPORAL TO THE PARSON

BY THE LATE REV LEANDER S. COAN

[The following lines were written by Mr Coan a few months before his death, and given to his daughter, a young lady eighteen years of age as she left home to spend a few months with her friends at Northport, before entering the family of Mr Geo L. Phillips, of Bangor, for the purpose of attending the High School Mr. Coan had been suffering from some disease hidden from the careful examination of skilful physicians, that was gradually undermining his physical system, and warned him that he must soon give up the struggles of life.—Ed]

"Come, open yer heart to me, Parson,
What makes yer face so sad?
You've always been kind in my troubles,
All that I've ever had.
An' now et the thing is reversed like,
An' yer need a helpin' hand,
I'm one that'll be found loyal,
Close by yer side to stand "

"This is all that I is, Corporal
My strength has been ebbing away,
My hope and courage have fallen,
As life's power slipped away;
And right in the midst of toiling,
Right under a noonday sun,
I feel that the day is ended,
That my work and struggles are done.

"I've got to lie down in the harness,—
To give up and cease to vie
With athletic or any striver—
Resigned and willing to die.
But while your words are powerless
To lift the load I bear,
I could bless you to God forever,
With kindest wish and prayer,

"For seeing under cheeks that are paling,
What baffles the healer's art,
That something was wearing slowly away—
The strength of one beating heart.
And I will bless you, and bless you ever,
For the kind words you have said,
For speaking the words sympathetic
I would yearn for, even though dead

A Washington special says The Post Office authorities have received the report of investigation made by a special agent into the attempted assassination of Postmaster Nix at Blackville. The report confirms the first statement as to the atrocity of this affair

The thickening of Europern complications is indicated by the retirement of Count Andrassy from the Austrian Cabinet; the announcement that a special envoy from the Emperor of Russia to the Emperor of Germany is expected at Baden Baden, the statement that the German-Austrian alliance embraces provisions in certain contingencies for defensive action, the despatches from Vienna that the breach between Russia and Austria is daily widening, and the rumor that Russia is reorganizing the navy yard at Cronstadt and mobilizing her armies. Granting that these despatches are to some extent based upon conjecture, they denote the readiness that is being made for another great struggle, the result of which may be the reconstruction of the map of Europe, and which is liable to be precipitated almost any day.

The Southern Democrat has an exalted conception of what is noble and chivalric in mankind. The Corinth (Miss) Record refers to the action of the Yazoo assassins as "the manly and timely example of the gallant Democracy " It says.

The Greenbackers of Holmes County, the most of whom are negroes, with about enough of white men to fill the offices, have put a full ticket in the field. The Lexington Advertiser says the convention which nominated the ticket was the most complete farce in the way of a political convention it ever witnessed. If the Democracy of Holmes should be overthrown by radicalism under its new name, they will have none but themselves to blame, for they have the manly and timely example of the gallant Democracy of Yazoo behind them.

Cuticura

REMEDIES.

The success attending the use of these great remedies in the treatment of affections of the Skin and Scalp with Loss of Hair is astonishing From every part of the country come the most grateful acknowledgements of what might be called miraculous cures Messrs Weeks & Potter extend their thanks to all who have given a good word for Cuticura, Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Resolvent, and will thankfully receive reports of new cases wherever they occur and Limbs. Obliged to go about on Crutches. A wonderful cure.

SALT RHEUM ON BODY

Messrs Weeks & Potter Gentlemen,—In justice to those who may suffer as I have suffered, and as a grateful acknowledgement of the cure I have received from the use of the Cuticura Remedies, I voluntarily make the following statement —

I have had Salt Rheum on my body and on one leg in a very aggravated form for eight years No kind of treatment, or medicine, or doctors, during this time, did me any permanent good. My friends in Malden and elsewhere know that I have been a great sufferer, and that my condition at times has been such as to make me despair of ever being able to find a cure, or even a relief In fact, when I began the use of Cuticura, my limb was so raw and tender that I could not bear my weight on it without the skin cracking and bleeding, and was obliged to go about on crutches. I commenced to use the Cuticura in April, and at once realized its beneficial effects. It gradually drew the inflammation and humor to the surface, and, as fast as it appeared, healed it. At times large quantities would come to the surface, causing burning heat, inflammation, swelling, and itching, which, under the constant use of Cuticura, would rapidly subside and heal. Each time these outbreaks grew less and less severe and finally disappeared, leaving me perfectly cured. I used the Cuticura five months and took the resolvent most of the time, which were the only remedies I used. I think the Resolvent a very strengthening and purifying medicine to take in such extreme cases as mine, because the disease is so weakening to the system

Very gratefully yours,

MRS ASA R. BROWN.

Malden, Mass., Oct. 15, 1878.

ECZEMA OF THE HANDS

Cured. Interesting Letter from a well known Attorney.

Editor New Orleans Picayune Sir,—Since the fall of 1867, up to the last three weeks, I have been troubled with an eruption of the skin which the doctors called by various names, but which is generally known by the name of Eczema or Salt Rheum. The principal place of attack was my hands, which at times, especially during the winter time, were very sore.

At times the disease threatened to spread from my hands and envelop my whole body. Doctors have been consulted in Philadelphia, Washington and in this city, with no more success than a temporary relief. After considerable expense, and much pain and suffering, I had come to the conclusion that I would, as the saying goes, have to grin and bear it.

About four weeks ago I read in the Picayune the advertisement of Cuticura, for sale by our well known druggist, Mr Lyons, and resolved to try it. I purchased a fifty cent box, and before it was half used the disease had completely disappeared, and I feel certain that mine is a permanent cure

My object in sending you this letter is to make known to other sufferers the value of Cuticura, and thus benefit, if ever so little, suffering humanity.

Yours truly, P. P. CARROLL, Attorney and Counsellor at Law.

A Great Strike Ordered.

Serious Trouble Apprehended.

EVANSBURGH, Pa., Oct. 8. The leaders of the miners National Association have ordered the miners to strike in a number of mines for ten per cent. advance. The number of strikers is placed at 5000, but it is highly probable that the entire body of miners in the bituminous coal country will also strike in a day or so, and the number of strikers will be increased to about 15,000. So far the strikers evince a disposition to maintain order. Intelligence comes from some of the lawless mountain districts of Mollie Maguire outrages but no authentic details. The local authorities at several exposed points apprehending riotous demonstrations have prepared themselves for any emergency. Important and startling developments are anticipated momentarily.

In Arapahoe county the Republicans elected every man; also in Galpin, Weld and Larimer. In Los Animas the Democrats fall behind last year's vote about 200.

QUICK TIME. The special train with the railroad officials that arrived in this city yesterday afternoon made some remarkably quick time. Engineer Foss was driving the locomotive and the last twelve miles were made in just eighteen minutes. One of these miles was made in fifty-nine seconds, another in fifty-seven seconds and still another in fifty-four seconds.

A BAD SCARE. Yesterday forenoon as two ladies were coming down Hammond street followed by their dog, the brute had a fit and rushed into a yard near by and was finally fastened in a shed. The occupants of the house were very much frightened, thinking that the dog was going mad and for a time matters were exceedingly lively in that vicinity. After a time one of the ladies hurried down town and procured some ether with which the dog was killed.

A FALSE ALARM. Our correspondent S. at Calais writes: Quite an excitement was created on the street Monday evening by a reported riot at Milltown. Word was sent to Marshal Tarbox for help, and Mr. Grafton of the Exchange livery stable quickly harnessed a pair of horses to a coach, and started with Marshal Tarbox and several deputies for the scene of trouble. Arriving they found that one man had hit another with a rock and cut his head open, but as both men had gone home and the town was quiet no arrests were made.

BUCKSPORT RAILROAD. The work of narrowing the gauge of the Bucksport railroad, commenced yesterday. A crew of 40 men are employed under Mr. Charles H. Sawyer, and as the inside spikes have already been driven and the sleepers leveled the work progresses rapidly. The trains were run as usual yesterday, the passengers being transferred from the narrow to the broad gauge train on the road, and but little time was lost. They commenced work on the Bucksport end and will reach here to-day. A narrow gauge passenger car and a baggage car arrived in the city yesterday.

A WEARY WALK. An aged couple called at the E. & N. A. depot yesterday afternoon and after making some inquiries of the officials, informed them that they had walked all the way from Houlton for the purpose of seeing their son, who was to meet them here, but they had been unable to find him. They said their name was Smith and the old gentleman gave his age as seventy years and his wife's as sixty. They left home about ten days ago and have been on the road ever since. It was their intention to tramp back to Oldtown where they had friends, but Superintendent Cram kindly furnished them with a pass.

UNITY CLUB. The annual meeting of Unity Club took place Tuesday evening. The chief business of the evening was the election of officers which resulted as follows: President, Hon. Noah Woods; Vice Presidents, Hon. Lewis Barker, Miss Grace T. Hemenway, N. S. Harlow; Secretary, Thomas W. Baldwin; Treasurer, Jos. M. Bright. The report of the Treasurer was read and discussed; it was decided to pay the small indebtedness of the Club at once so as to start anew free from debt. Plans for the winter's work were discussed and various suggestions offered. A committee was chosen to prepare an opening entertainment for some evening of next week, which it is hoped will bring all the members together again. The meeting adjourned till Oct. 20th.

THE FAIR AT HAMPDEN. The Cattle Show and Fair under the auspices of the Penobscot Agricultural Society, opens at Hampden to-day and continues until Friday evening at ten o'clock. A large number of entries have already been made and the indications are that the exhibition, particularly in the Town Hall, will be the finest ever held in the county. The ladies have labored diligently in the hall and their decorations are highly complimented. The admission to the grounds is free, admission to the hall twenty cents. A dinner will be served by the Trustees for fifty cents, the proceeds to be used for the benefit of the society. The Coburn Cadets will attend the fair on Friday. We understand that they will go down on the Walter Ross from this city and return the latter part of the afternoon.

MORE THAN HE BARGAINED FOR.—Yesterday there was a little fracas at the steamers' house, the particulars of which, as near as we can learn, are as follows: It appears that a man from the country who, we believe, formerly drove one of the engines, came into the city and after taking some stimulent, went up to the steamers' house with a view of punishing the present driver, Mr. Ambrose Merrill, whom he thinks had something to do with his discharge. He made considerable talk which was unnoticed by Mr. Merrill, who is a man of few words and one who pays strict attention to his own business, and after a time the fellow went away, but returned again in a short time. He again made some talk and finally entered the building and struck at Mr. Merrill, who promptly knocked him down. This kind of treatment was evidently not very satisfactory for the fellow suddenly made his exit.

A TRUNK THAT AROUSED SOME SUSPICIONS. The baggage master on the Maine Central train that arrived here last evening, discovered among the other baggage, one trunk checked for the eastern part of the State, that was exceedingly heavy and emitted a terrible odor. Thinking that it might be something that would bear investigation, the baggage master called the attention of the depot officials to the trunk and Marshal Reed was notified. The trunk was opened and in it were two small cans at either end, just high enough to permit the cover to come down firmly and some old clothes. These cans had a small opening that was closed with a common stopple which of course allayed all suspicions as to their being a dead body in the trunk, but whatever the contents of the cans were, the odor was sufficient to arouse the suspicions of any one.

FOR THE LADIES. It is reported that Miss Wilson, who is visiting friends in Damariscotta, has probably the longest hair in the world. It measures eight feet in length and when dressed in French twist passes six times around the head. The growth is perfectly natural, and is pronounced by those who have seen it as simply wonderful. The lady has been offered a large sum for it. Fabrics with flowered stripes will be much in vogue this season. This style and the Oriental designs will be used for the trimming and accessories of the toilette. These fabrics of mixed silk and wool will be used principally for dress trimmings, vests and sorties de bal. London newspapers tell of a belle who paid fifty dollars to have the initials of her lover's name tattoed on her arm, and later, having quarrelled with him, was offering one hundred dollars to have it erased. The pretty round turban hats, made last season of silk or satin, and this summer in different styles of straw, are still fashionable; they now come in felt or beaver, and are trimmed with velvet, fancy scarfs and the wings of birds, or large bird heads and breasts ...

MILLINERY OPENING. There was a fine display of fall millinery at the establishment of Dwelley & Co., on Main street, yesterday. The weather was all that could be desired and the store was thronged with ladies during the entire day—in fact the attendance was larger than for several years. There was a large profusion of hats and bonnets in all shapes and styles, trimmed in the most artistic manner, and the ladies were enthusiastic in their praise of the exhibition. The goods were finely arranged and reflected much credit on this well-known establishment.

R. S.; John S. Kimball, F. S.; Samuel S. Kimball, T., Mrs. Abigail Palmer, Chaplain; Fred T. Badershell, C.; Emma A. Clatte, A. C.; H. C. Bickford, I. S.; George C. Lawrence, O. S.; William Norwood, P. W. P.; E. P. Dunham, Organist. Regular meeting this Thursday evening.

THE LINCOLN LECTURE. In accordance with the announcement in another column, Hon. Schuyler Colfax, of Indiana, will deliver his celebrated lecture on "The life and character of Abraham Lincoln," in Norombega Hall, on Wednesday evening of next week. The mere announcement of the lecture will probably be sufficient to draw out one of Bangor's best audiences. The following is taken from the Elmira (N. Y.) Advertiser: "It gives perhaps, the best picture of Lincoln that has been drawn either with the pencil or the pen. You get closer to the man; as one might say, know him better than you could ever have known him, unless you had been so fortunate as to have been thrown as intimately with him as Mr. Colfax. There were traits in his character which were brought out so vividly and clearly that the man almost stood before you. There are many passages in it of great beauty and eloquence and a quantity of illustrating anecdotes, which enliven and vary it to the delight of every one who hears it. The general expression was, that the lecture was an intensely satisfying one not only for the present, while being listened to, but for future thought and memory, for it was one of those efforts that fixes itself on the mind and remains there, appearing again, fresh and pleasant. It deserves to be preserved in full, as a matter of historical record, being a masterly and certainly impartial, vivid and truthful description of one who will go down to posterity as one of the most remarkable men, if not the most remarkable man, that our country has produced."

A REMARKABLE TRAMP. The Bath Times says: A very highly educated "tramp," remarkable for his versatility of thought and fine choice of language, came over from Rockland on the train recently. He was somewhat inebriated and his personal appearance was rough and course to almost the last degree, showing him to be a veteran tramp. Yet drunk as he was, the fine and at times beautiful language which fell from his lips, the ready quotations which be gave from leading authors of all kinds of literature, and the great range of thought to which he gave expression, there being nothing uttered by those who were attracted to him but what he was ready to enlarge upon and show it to be a familiar topic with him, all showed him to be a tramp of no common order. On arriving in this city he entertained a number in front of the Sagadahoc House to a late hour with his remarkable conversation. His skill as an elocutionist is rarely equaled, pronouncing his words with a certain musical flow which quite captivated his hearers in spite of the absurdity of the situation. Impromptu poetry he delivered as easy as if from memory; the Rockland lock-up, where he had passed the previous night, forming the subject of one of his efforts. This man must have had a remarkable history, interesting to know, but the only item he disclosed in regard to his previous life was the fact that he was educated at a University in England. What eventually became of him we are unable to learn. Our friend Goldstein, appreciating the latent worth of this character, and with an eye to business, offered to take him into his store, dress him up in the best his store afforded, and pay him, but the poor renegade from society rejected the offer, preferring his present mode of life, saying that not $1000 a day would be give up his liquor. His case is remarkable, interesting and sorrowful.

ANNUAL TRIP. The Maine Central Directors who are on their annual tour of inspection of the road and its branches, arrived in this city yesterday afternoon on a special train. Obituary.

Mrs. Miriam (McDonald) Dole, departed this life, on Monday afternoon, Oct. 6th, aged ...

Mrs. D. was born in Limerick, Me., 1811, April 8th, the daughter of Major-General John McDonald and Lydia (Willey) McDonald. Of the dozen children, two only are now living, Mrs. Hannah Merrill, and Mrs. Francis Burr, whose husband was editor of the Morning Star, Dover, N. H. Among her brothers were Rev. James McDonald, of Princeton, N. J., Hons. James and John McDonald. In 1834, April 24th, she was united in marriage with Albert Dole, Esq., of Limerick. In June 1834, they removed to this city, uniting with the Hammond street church that year. Mrs. D. after a life of industry and usefulness, died in this city in 1869, May 26th, aged 50. ... social, moral, and religious nature, that manifested itself most prominently. Her life among us has been a perpetual fountain of blessing. As a wife, and mother, and in all her home relations, constant, wise in counsel, loving and cheerful; as a neighbor and friend, kind and generous, prompt and self-sacrificing in seasons of sickness and affliction; as a disciple of the Master, worthy to be ranked among those women commended, as ministering to Him in the persons of others; evidencing constantly, and without any faltering, her love to His church, His ministers and people, and her devotion to His cause and service.

The closing of her beautiful and devoted life, while it brings sorrow and regret, must in the remembrance of it, and in the sweet visions and vivid experiences she had of her heavenly home and rest, be a source of great satisfaction to her household and friends.

Of her seven children, four are living, William Burr, James Albert, Olive McDonald and John Henry Dole, — (her daughter is Mrs. H. W. Blood.)

The funeral services will be held this afternoon, at her late residence, No. 83 Union street at half-past two o'clock.

ACUTE AND CHRONIC DISEASES OF THE RESPIRATORY ORGANS. Catarrh is an inflammation of the nasal cavities, extending to the throat, and as it progresses the trachea and bronchia become involved. Asthma is caused by a contraction of the air tubes of the lungs. Pharyngitis is an inflammation of the pharynx or upper part of the throat. Laryngitis is an inflammation of the larynx or cavity in the throat, where the voice is produced. Tracheatis is an inflammation of the trachea or wind pipe. Bronchitis is an inflammation of the bronchia or air-tubes of the lungs, branching off from the trachea. This inflammation may be classed acute, chronic and ulcerative, and, in advance stages, dangerous. Many patients suffering with inflammation of the pharynx or larynx are inclined to believe they have bronchitis, but such is not the case, although of a similar nature, it is not as dangerous, nor as difficult to cure. Dr Josiah Briggs' Medicated Oxygenated Vapor is a specific for the various ailments described above. It affords immediate relief and with other remedies having a healing and soothing influence, the severest cases soon yield to the curative effect of the combined healing agents, which may be tested free from 8 A. M. to 8 P. M. at the Bangor House until Monday, Oct. 13th.

TO CONSUMPTIVES. WILBOR'S COD LIVER OIL AND LIME, without possessing the very nauseating flavor of the article as heretofore used, is endowed by the Phosphate of Lime with a healing property which renders the Oil doubly efficacious. WEALTH EASILY OBTAINED.

Jay Gould, combining vast amounts of money with several great capitalists, has frequently made colossal profits in stock speculations, paying millions to each shareholder. The new combination plan of Messrs. Lawrence & Co. confers similar benefits on the shareholders who invest small and large amounts, from $25 to $10,000. The money of thousands of customers is thus massed in one mighty sum, and operated with the ripest experience and best skill, has secured the most brilliant successes. A hotel keeper in Ohio invested $100 in a combination, which netted $478. Three reinvestments resulted in a total profit of $13,801.18. A Boston gentleman invested $500 in a combination, which yielded a profit of $2,817.04; two reinvestments netted him $3,641 31. A Chicago merchant made $13,210 41 in four months of combination investments. New explanatory circular with "rules for unerring success." Apply to Messrs. To the Honorable Judge of Probate for the County of Penobscot:

The undersigned, administratrix of the estate of Newell M Cowan, late of Bangor, in said County, deceased, respectfully represents that the goods and chattels, rights and credits of said deceased are not sufficient to pay his just debts and charges of administration

Said real estate is the same described in a deed recorded in the Registry of Deeds of said County, Vol. 460, page 49.

To the Honorable Judge of Probate for the County of Penobscot.

The undersigned administrator of the estate of Patrick Connolly, late of Bangor, in said county, deceased, respectfully represents that the goods and chattels rights and credits of said deceased are not sufficient to pay his just debts and charges of administration

Wherefore your petitioner prays your Honor to grant him power to sell, by license at public or private sale and convey the whole of the following described real estate of the deceased, as the residue would be greatly depreciated by a sale of any portion viz Four hundred and sixty five seven hundredths of one fifth and the widow's right of dower in the John Galvin homestead, west side of Hancock street, in the city of Bangor, to satisfy said debts, expenses of sale, and charges of administration

Said real estate is the same described in a deed recorded in the Registry of Deeds of said County Vol 41, page 25.

ST. NICHOLAS,

Scribner's Illustrated Magazine

FOR GIRLS AND BOYS.

AN IDEAL CHILDREN'S MAGAZINE.

Messrs. SCRIBNER & Co , in 1873, began the publication of ST NICHOLAS, an Illustrated Magazine for Girls and Boys, with Mrs Mary Mapes Dodge as editor Five years have passed since the first number was issued, and the magazine has won the highest position It has a monthly circulation of OVER 50,000 COPIES.

It is published simultaneously in London and New York, and the transatlantic recognition is almost as general and hearty as the American Although the progress of the magazine has been a steady advance, it has not reached its editor's ideas of best, because her ideal continually outruns it, and the magazine as swiftly follows after To-day ST NICHOLAS stands

Alone in the World of Books:

The New York Tribune has said of it "ST NICHOLAS has reached a higher platform, and commands for its service wider resources in art and letters than any of its predecessors or contemporaries" The London Literary World says "There is no magazine for the young that can be said to equal this choice production of Scribner's press"

Good Things for 1878--9.

The arrangements for literary and art contributions for the new volume—the sixth—are complete, drawing from already favorite sources, as well as from promising new ones Mr Frank R. Stockton's new serial story for boys,

"A JOLLY FELLOWSHIP,"

Will run through the twelve monthly parts,—beginning with the number for November, 1878, the first of the volume,—and will be illustrated by James E. Kelly. The story is one of travel and adventure in Florida and the Bahamas. For the girls, a continued tale,

"Half a Dozen Housekeepers,"

By Katharine D. Smith, with illustrations by Frederick Dielman, begins in the same number, and a fresh serial by Susan Coolidge, entitled "Eyebright," with plenty of pictures, will be commenced early in the volume. There will also be a continued fairy-tale called

"Rumpty Dudget's Tower,"

Written by Julian Hawthorne, and illustrated by Alfred Fredericks. About the other familiar features of St. Nicholas, the editor preserves a good-humored silence, content, perhaps, to let her five volumes already issued, prophesy concerning the sixth, in respect to short stories, pictures, poems, humor, instructive sketches, and the lure and lore of "Jack-in-the-Pulpit," the "Very Little Folks" department, and the "Letter-box," and "Riddle-box."
